Day 8: Akhaltsikhe-Saro-Vardzia-Akhaltikhe

Approx. driving distance: 2 hr 49 min (132 km)

Breakfast in the morning

Your first stop will be at the historic Rabati Fortress, where you will delve into the rich history and culture of this ancient monument. Rabati Fortress is a medieval castle located in the city of Akhaltsikhe, Georgia. It was built in the 9th century and has been reconstructed and rebuilt several times throughout history. It features a citadel, a palace, a mosque, a madrasa, and a church. The fortress played an important role in the region's history, serving as a military stronghold and as a center of political, cultural, and economic activity.

From there, you will continue on to Saro village and take in the breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. Saro is known for its ancient history: it hosts a remarkable megalithic fortress complex — a “cyclopean” fortress built with massive stone blocks, some of which date back to the 2nd-1st millennia BCE. There is also a small medieval chapel: the Archangel Church of Saro dating to the 7th-8th centuries, restored later — so Saro reflects layers of history (pre-Christian, medieval, and beyond).

Next, you will make your way to Vardzia, a cave town dating back to the 12th century. Here, you will have the opportunity to explore the intricate network of caves, admire the ancient frescoes, and learn about the rich history of this fascinating site. After a full day of exploring, you'll head back to Akhaltsikhe.

Overnight in Akhaltsikhe

Day 11: Kutaisi-Petra-Batumi

Approx. driving distance: 2 hr 50 min (162 km)

Today, your first stop is Petra Fortress, a medieval castle from the 9th century AD. It is located on a rocky hilltop overlooking the town and is known for its well-preserved defensive structures and views of the surrounding area.

After visiting Petra, continue to Batumi, a major coastal city known for its beaches, nightlife, and cultural attractions. On the way, you can make an optional stop at the Batumi Botanical Garden, which features a large collection of plant species from different regions of the world.

Once in Batumi, you can explore the city's key sights, including historical landmarks and modern architectural highlights. Batumi offers a variety of activities for visitors interested in culture, history, or simply relaxing by the sea.

Overnight in Batumi.

Day 12: Batumi-Machakhela NP- Batumi

Approx. driving distance: 1 hr 30 min (53.3 km)

After breakfast, drive to Machakhela National Park Visitor Centre where you can register as trail visitor (registration is mandatory). Take Mtavarangelози mountain trail beginning in village Sindieti. The trail length is about 9 km in total and leads to Mtavarangelози Mountain ("Mount Archangel"), which reaches roughly 880 meters above sea level. The path goes through dense Colchic-type broadleaf forests: beech, chestnut, hornbeam, alder — a rich, lush forest typical for this region. Along the route you'll also find mountain springs and small streams/springs — nice spots to rest or enjoy nature. The trail gives panoramic views from the summit: from the top of Mtavarangelози you can see the Machakhela gorge, the Machakhela river valley, and even a view toward Batumi and the surrounding mountains — on a clear day it's quite impressive.

Drive back to Batumi. Leave the rental car.
