DAY TO DAY ITINERARY

1 DAY | Arrival in Kutaisi

Arrival in Kutaisi Airport. Transfer to the hotel for overnight.

2 DAY | Kutaisi-Nokalakevi-Mestia

Today we drive to visit Prometheus Caves. Discovered in 1984, Prometheus caves is one of the biggest caves in Georgia. Here, we can take a walk along the 1.2 km long underground trail that is open for tourists.

From Prometheus Cave we continue our trip to Nokalakevi village, famous for its archaeological site that consisting of the remnants of 4-6th c.c. fortress in the Samegrelo-Zemo Svaneti region of Georgia. After paying a visit to Nokalakevi museum-reserve, we continue driving to the north-west and make a stop at the Enguri hydroelectric dam, one of the tallest concrete arch dams in the world with a height of 271.5 m.

From Enguri dam continue our way to northern region of Georgia - Svaneti. Arrive to the town of Mestia - the center of Svaneti.

3 DAY | Mestia-Ushguli-Mestia

Drive to the highest inhabited village in Europe - Ushguli. The village is included in UNESCO World Heritage Sites list. The way to Ushguli is extremely attractive. You will find yourself in the realm of the towers, surrounded by the Caucasus Mountains, glaciers, high peaks and roaring waterfalls. Take a walk towards Shkhara Glacier-the highest mountain in Georgia 5068 m. In the evening drive back to Mestia.

4 DAY | Mestia-Zugdidi-Kutaisi

After breakfast drive back towards Kutaisi. On the way we stop at Zugdidi -administrative center of Samegrelo region. During Zugdidi tour we visit Dadiani Palace and Museum, the Samegrelo queen Ekaterine Chauchavadze-Dadiani and Prince Niko Dadiani court church, and the botanical garden. Explore Kutaisi city and its surroundings. Visit two UNESCO Sites: Gelati Academy and Bagrati Cathedral. Built in 12th century, during the Georgian Golden Era, under the rule of King David IV, Gelati became a cultural and intellectual center for in middle ages.

Named after King Bagrati III, Bagrati Cathedral presents a masterpiece of Georgian medieval church architecture. The cathedral stands on the hill at the heart of Kutaisi and is considered as a symbol of the city.
