Take a nice walk on Sharden street, en-route you can see the small sculpture of Tamada (toast master) and visit Caravansaray, (the History museum of Georgia) rich of various modern exhibits. Continue to Sioni cathedral from the 13th c. and Erekle II Street full of nice cafes, bars. Cross the glass Bridge of Peace. Get in the cable car and drive up to Narikala fortress 4th c. Stroll down to the mosque, little canyon and waterfall in Legutakhevi area. Continue to Abanotubani, sulfur bath houses. Here you can see the colourful bath (Chreli Abano) Alexander Pushkin's favorite one. Finish the old city tour with Maidan square. Drive up to the Open Air

Museum of Ethnography which is encompassed with 14 different Ethnographic zones: Kartli, Adjara, Imereti, and others. During this tour you'll visit all the regions mentioned above. Overnight in Tbilisi hotel

3 DAY | Tbilisi-Gori-Uplistsikhe-Kutaisi
Today we explore Kartli and Imereti regions. Drive via Western highway to Gori town, the birthplace of Joseph Stalin. Visit of his house-museum and personal carriage. Continue towards Uplistsikhe, the oldest cave complex in Georgia, dated back to the 1st millennium B. C. Excursion will take about an hour. Afterwards drive to Imereti region Via Rikoti Pass. On the way we can make few stops in Surami village, famous of Nazuki bakeries (sweet bread) and Shrosha village well known for pottery production. Arrive in Kutaisi, the administrative centre of Imereti region. The town was the capital of the Western Georgian kingdom. Take an easy evening walk to Bagrati 11th c. cathedral located nearby.

4 DAY | Kutaisi City Tour-Imereti Caves

Start a full day Kutaisi city tour from the important religious, historical and cultural area, Gelati Monastery and academy, 12th century complex. The complex compounds of one central cathedral, a few little churches, academy building, tomb of the great king of Georgia - David the Builder, the founder of this valuable cultural site which nowadays is included in UNESCO world heritage list. Motsameta (for Martyrs), 10th century little quiet monastic complex surrounded with green and rocky mountains is located nearby Gelati. Continue driving to Tskaltubo to visit Prometheus Grotto. 1200 meters long Karst cave with 5 different shaped halls rich of stalactites, stalagmites and other Karst figures formed millions of years ago. The place is interesting not only for its beauty, it also has medical prescript. Drive back to Kutaisi and stroll in the city centre.
